Sleep-themed amenity kits help flyers stay relaxed and refreshed

Say hello to United Premium Plus
 Where comfort meets convenience.

Our international premium economy experience is here. The seat provides more space and comfort with added benefits such as an amenity kit containing Sunday Riley, Saks Fifth Avenue blanket and pillow, upgraded dining on chinaware and more. The seats are located closer to the front of the aircraft, directly behind Polaris. Customers travelling in United Premium Plus<sup>SM</sup> receive Premier Access check-in, priority boarding and complimentary checked bags.

More comfort. More United.

United Airlines is changing the premium travel experience out of London Heathrow. Now offering all-aisle access Polaris business class seats and brand new United Premium Plus seats on all London Heathrow to New York/Newark, Chicago (from the 15th November), San Francisco and select services to Washington Dulles. The fleet on London to New York and Chicago features the highest proportion of premium seats on any widebody aircraft operated by any U.S. carrier.

United Polaris and United Premium Plus travel features, including aircraft and airport configuration, may not be available in all markets and/or flights. Information correct as of August 2019.

London Heathrow ✈️ Chicago & New York/Newark

Our newly retrofitted 767-300 aircraft with 46 United Polaris seats (a more than 50% increase in all-aisle access seating) and 22 United Premium Plus can be found on all our London Heathrow to New York/Newark flights and from the 15th November, all our London Heathrow to Chicago flights.

See below our other routes and aircraft which feature all-aisle access seating and Premium Plus.
