CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, San Francisco and Las Vegas are the three great cities of the West which together attract millions of tourists each year.

Los Angeles, which boasts the fame and attraction of Hollywood, can be the perfect start to a fabulous California vacation.

Others may prefer San Francisco for its many diverse neighborhoods, whimsical cable cars, fine dining and stunning views. No trip to the West is complete without a visit to Las Vegas, the notorious city of sin, to see the sparkling lights of the Las Vegas Strip, to party in the exciting nightclubs and to try your luck at the gambling tables.

Each of these three cities serves as a gateway to other quintessentially Californian or Western locales. From San Francisco, visit the world famous Napa Valley wine country and see coast redwoods in Muir Woods.

From Los Angeles, head south to sunny San Diego, the classic California beach town. Even flashy Las Vegas has beautiful natural surroundings to boast – a day trip to the Grand Canyon.

Our California Vacation Package linking Los Angeles, Las Vegas and San Francisco, along with their surrounding areas, allows travelers to see the immense diversity of California and the Western United States.

From empty deserts to bustling cities, from sunny, sandy beaches to rocky, foggy coastlines, you will certainly be enchanted by the West Coast of the United States.

CHARLESTON & SAVANNAH

Charleston

Immerse yourself in Colonial history, world-class culinary tastes and warm hospitality with our Charleston and Savannah vacation package.

Charleston – recently voted the top destination in the world by readers of Condé Nast Traveler – is well-known for its award-winning restaurant scene. With many historic church spires and one of the largest historical districts in the nation, Charleston is dubbed the “Holy City” and a “living museum”.

Savannah, the “Garden City,” is characterized by moss-draped live oaks, spectacular fountains, colorful public squares and cobblestone streets along the riverfront.

Forsyth Park, Savannah

Our Charleston and Savannah vacation package is the perfect way to explore the charm and traditions of the Deep South. The itineraries can be customized to any length to suit your needs.

NASHVILLE & MEMPHIS

Memphis and Nashville are known for comfort foods like catfish, hushpuppies and flavorful Memphis style barbeque ribs, but both Tennessee cities offer plenty of sophisticated dining choices as well. But the main attraction here is music. You can explore Graceland and the roots of rock ‘n roll in Memphis; the blues in neighboring Mississippi; and country music in Nashville, aka “Music City USA.”

Tour the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Ole Opry. Make your own record in Studios B, the historic RCA facility where Elvis and hundreds of other recorded more than 35,000 songs.

NAPA VALLEY

Situated in a temperate, hilly part of Northern California, Napa and Sonoma Valleys are known around the world as premier wine-growing regions. Rolling hills covered in vines, hundreds of world-class wineries, charming towns and deluxe spa facilities are accessible with the Napa Valley vacation packages.

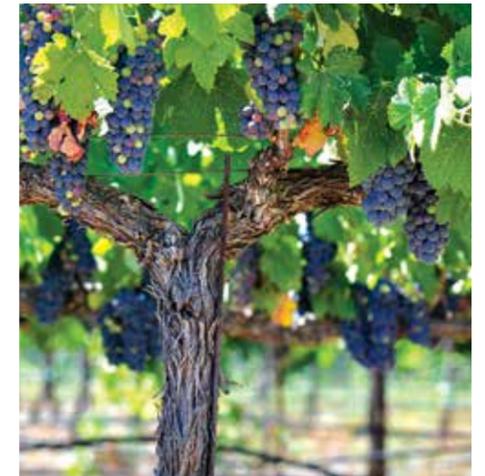

Wine connoisseurs will find much to tempt them on a wine tour, as they taste the subtle differences in California wines, while novices will have the chance to try many different varietals, from light sparkling wines to bold zinfandels, as they begin to refine their palates.

The Napa and Sonoma Valleys are located just an hour north of San Francisco, and spending a few nights in the city by the Bay can be easily added on with the Napa Valley vacation packages.

Our Napa Valley & San Francisco vacation packages are designed for the independent traveler arriving in San Francisco and wanting to visit the city and the Napa Valley Wine Country. The itineraries can be customized to any length to suit your needs.

NEW YORK

For art, fashion or finance, New York is the quintessential American metropolis. The New York vacation packages will bring you into contact with the bustling energy of New York - the "city that never sleeps," and one of the top vacation destinations in the US. Skyscrapers create modern-day canyons down the streets of Manhattan, all the way down to Wall Street, home of the largest trading floor in the world. Visit some of the world's most famous sightseeing destinations, such as the Empire State Building, Central Park, and Times Square. Combine your New York vacation with a trip to Washington D.C. - visit national monuments such as the Lincoln Memorial, see the White House and explore the many museums that make up the Smithsonian Institution.

The city of Philadelphia features more of America's history, such as the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, and is also home to a great art museum. Don't miss a day trip to Pennsylvania's Amish Country, home to the Pennsylvania Dutch who live without modern technology.

New York vacation packages are designed for the independent traveler arriving in New York and wanting to visit the city and the surrounding area. The itineraries are flexible and can be extended or further customized to suit your needs.

SAN FRANCISCO

The San Francisco vacation package introduces you to the relaxed pace of San Francisco, a city with an astonishing choice of restaurants and the most breathtaking natural setting of any American city. Tourists flock to the city to see beautiful views, tour its varied neighborhoods, and visit famous landmarks like the Golden Gate Bridge. Take a ride on one of the famous cable cars, see the barking sea lions at Pier 39, or tour the island of Alcatraz, the most famous prison in the world. There is a reason so many tourists visit San Francisco - come find out for yourself!

The surrounding areas are equally breathtaking. The Napa and Sonoma valleys just north of San Francisco are the heart of California's wine country and boast rolling hills, gourmet dining and world class wines. In the Sierra Nevadas to the east, the sheer granite cliffs, imposing peaks and thundering waterfalls of the high sierra mountains all make Yosemite National Park one of the most memorable destinations in Northern California. South of San Francisco, along the rugged Pacific shore, are the idyllic coastal towns Monterey and Carmel.

Our San Francisco vacation packages are designed for the independent traveler arriving in San Francisco and wanting to visit the city and the surrounding area. The itineraries can be combined in any order and can be customized to any length to suit your needs.

NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans has so many historic sites, famous landmarks and well-known neighborhoods, each with their own history and cultural influences, that it can be difficult deciding where to begin! Start out with a city tour to experience the French Quarter, Jackson Square, the Garden District, and all the other “must see” destinations in one of America’s most colorful and diverse cities.

And don’t forget about the cuisine! Visitors keep returning for dishes ranging from Cajun specialties to local seafood to internationally-known delicacies.

But there’s plenty more to see beyond the city of New Orleans. A swamp tour offers a leisurely cruise through the mysterious bayous and backwaters, where you can get up close and personal with 10-foot alligators and exotic subtropical flowers. On the plantation tour, visit luscious gardens and authentic antebellum mansions, then relax in a rocking chair on the porch of a historic antebellum mansion while gazing at the Mississippi River.

Our New Orleans vacation package is the perfect way to explore French, Cajun and Creole influenced culture of Deep South. The itineraries can be customized to any length to suit your needs.

CANADA

Vancouver

Canada vacation packages take you away to a country of incomparable beauty, urban pleasures and historic fascinations. In the west, while coastal scenery alone is worth visiting, Vancouver rocks with a plethora of shopping, galleries, and public art. Take a short drive along the breathtaking Sea to Sky Highway to the quaint town of Whistler.

If you are looking for urban buzz, Montreal and Toronto have more than plenty. With its surname of the "city of festivals", Montreal is phenomenal with award-winning cuisine, dramatic architecture and international jazz and art festivals. In Old Montreal, cobbled pathways, colonial mansions and Victorian street lamps highlight 17th century French colony charm while modern skyscrapers hang in the backdrop.

Toronto, Canada's largest city, operates as the country's financial nerve center as well as a cornerstone for the film and TV industries. In recent years, it has grown into a hip destination with a food scene that rivals New York City. For a change of pace visit Niagara Falls.

Our Canada vacation packages are designed for independent travelers wanting to visit Vancouver, Montreal and Toronto and the surrounding areas. The itineraries can be combined in any order and can be customized to any length to suit your needs.
