AWARD-WINNING HOLIDAY INSURANCE COVER

Before you travel it is essential that you take out adequate holiday insurance to protect you in case of cancellation or medical emergency.

We are happy to recommend our partners Holiday Extras, winners of the Travel Weekly Globe Awards for best travel insurance providers for the past eight years and underwritten by Allianz Global Assistance, the largest global assistance company in the world. We recommend a minimum of £5m medical cover and repatriation costs, as well as sufficient cancellation cover for the value of your holiday including any flight upgrades or other extras you may have added. Comprehensive policies are available to cover your needs including:

- ✓ Standard single trip cover up to the age of 85, for those without pre-existing medical conditions.
- ✓ Specially designed 'Latitude' policies for those who have pre-existing medical conditions but don't want to be penalised with 'top-up' fees that competitors' policies might demand.

✓ Over-85s cover available.

Our partners are able to offer annual policies allowing those who travel more than a few times a year the opportunity to get their cover in one go, as well as specialist cruise policies covering eventualities such as missed ports.

Our partners at Holiday Extras would love to speak to you to provide the best cover for your needs.

Frequently asked questions

“Do I get to dine with others?”

Yes! This is our most frequently asked question, and why we always organise a welcome dinner or drink so you can get to know your fellow travellers. You’ll even find that at times when your meal is not included, the group still dine together, giving you the perfect opportunity to discuss the events of the day.

“Can I do my own thing away from the group?”

Yes! Our holidays are designed to offer the ideal balance between escorted tour and independent travel. If you want to stick with the group, that’s fine, but you’re always welcome to go and do your own thing. Whatever you choose, your Tour Manager will always be there should you need them.

“Is my holiday single supplement-free?”

Yes! Our pricing is transparent. There are no hidden extras – the price you see is the price you pay. It is important to have your own space and somewhere you can retreat to at the end of the day. That’s why you’ll always stay in your own room at no extra cost.

“Can anyone travel with Just You?”

Yes! Our holidays aren’t just for single people, they are for anyone who wants to travel as an individual. If you want to experience a new destination in good company or feel it’s time to do something for you and you don’t want to travel with a friend or partner, a Just You holiday will be perfect! Travellers of all ages join our tours, so whether you are 18 or 80 you’ll be made very welcome on one of our holidays.

“Can I fly from my local airport?”

Yes! Many of our holidays offer flights from local airports. To make your journey hassle-free, we have representatives at all major airports and organise transfers to and from your hotel. On some long-haul holidays we even include free access to the airport lounge – an ideal place to relax before your flight.

Grand Teton National Park

Monument Valley

Yellowstone National Park

Day 1 UK to Denver

Today we'll fly to Denver, Colorado.

Day 2 Rapid City

South Dakota's Black Hills are an impressive sight and Rapid City, where we'll head today, is nestled on the eastern foothills. En route we'll call at Cheyenne and Fort Laramie, where chief Red Cloud signed the treaty that gave much land to the Sioux. We will arrive in Fort Hays for a Chuckwagon Supper and Cowboy Music Show. The venue is located on the film set of the Oscar-winning 'Dances with Wolves', which starred Kevin Costner.

Day 3 Mount Rushmore

Mount Rushmore, with its famous granite sculptures of Presidents Roosevelt, Lincoln, Washington and Jefferson, is our destination today. We'll begin the day with breakfast overlooking the huge carvings, which are one of the definitive monuments of the United States. We'll also take in the Crazy Horse Memorial.

Badlands National Park is a strange and beautiful landscape of deep gorges, saw-edged spires and grassy-topped buttes - an eerie world carved out by 35 millions years of wind and water erosion. We will visit the park this afternoon.

Day 4 Deadwood

Our journey today takes us through the Black Hills into 'Wild West' territory and the city of Deadwood, which was frequented many years ago by the likes of Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane. We'll continue to Sheridan for an overnight stay.

Day 5 Little Bighorn Battlefield

The historic battlefield site of Little Bighorn is where General Custer and the 7th Cavalry were outfought by Crazy Horse. You can see where the soldiers fell (markers were placed only days after the battle), and absorb all the events of that fateful day on our guided tour.

Day 6 Yellowstone National Park

The world's oldest national park, Yellowstone is a wonderland of spouting geysers, terraced hot springs, boiling pools and bubbling mud pots. You may see the extraordinary Yellowstone Canyon with its waterfall twice the height of Niagara, the Fountain Paint Pots and, of course, 'Old Faithful', which erupts every 93 minutes, during our visit. The park is also a wildlife sanctuary, with wild bears, elk and herds of buffalo roaming freely.

Day 7 Grand Teton National Park

Grand Teton National Park is famed for its beautiful landscapes dominated by snow-capped peaks, serene lakes and mighty glaciers. Take in the vistas before travelling on to the lively town of Jackson.

Days 8 & 9 Salt Lake City

We'll visit Logan Canyon and Bear Lake for an included picnic lunch. Bear Lake is a natural freshwater lake on the Utah-Idaho border, known as the 'Caribbean of the Rockies' for its unique turquoise-blue colour.

Named after the Great Salt Lake, Salt Lake City was founded by the Mormons. You'll have the day to explore or join our optional excursion to the lake. Once part of the prehistoric Lake Bonneville, today it covers 2,000 square miles and is saltier than the ocean.

Day 10 Arches National Park

It's easy to see how Arches National Park was given its name. It's home to the world's greatest concentration of red sandstone arches - natural rock formations carved by the elements over millions of years. We'll discover this and more today.

Day 11 Mesa Verde National Park

Mesa Verde National Park is an archaeological masterpiece famed for its cliff dwellings. Cliff Palace, the largest of these homes carved into the rock face, has more than 200 rooms, and we'll see it today.

Day 12 Monument Valley

Marking the point where Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Arizona converge, the monument at Four Corners is our first stop of the day. It's then on to Monument Valley, instantly recognisable to film-goers as the setting for many movies thanks to its spectacular and unique rock formations. An optional, narrated four-wheel drive tour will be available today.

Day 13 Grand Canyon

Eroded over millions of years by the ebb and flow of the Colorado River, the Grand Canyon is surely one of the world's most intense and absorbing sights. From the South Rim, you'll be able to admire the most incredible and spectacular panoramas, and for a bird's-eye view, why not take an optional flight over the canyon - it's the only way to get a real feel for the immense scale of this astounding natural wonder. We'll continue to Kanab. You may recognise the scenery here, as the town and surrounding desert has often been used as a film set.

Day 14 Bryce Canyon National Park

Subtle colours, delicate spires of rock and vast natural amphitheatres are all signatures of the unique geology of Bryce Canyon National Park and we'll discover them today. Set below an ever-changing sky, the colours of the rocks seem to continuously change with the light.

Day 15 Zion National Park

Today is a day of exploration of the sheer cliffs, deep chasms and rock formations of Zion National Park. In complete contrast to the sheer natural beauty of Zion are the bright lights of Las Vegas, which is where we'll head next. Why not join your Tour Manager for a tour of the city by night.

Days 16 & 17 Las Vegas to UK

Enjoy a morning at leisure before your late-afternoon flight back to the UK, arriving on day 17.

Please note: At certain times of year it is possible that Yellowstone may experience snow, which may mean we need to use a different route.

Cuzco

Lima

Days 1 & 2 UK to Lima

You'll fly to Lima, the 'City of Kings', arriving on day 2. Founded in 1535 by the Spanish Conquistador, Francisco Pizarro, much of Spain's colonial influence can still be seen. Beautiful squares, fine churches and mansions have changed little since the 17th century. Must-see sights include the cathedral, the Archbishop's Palace and the Presidential Palace, which all feature on our included tour. The pre-Inca and Inca artefacts in the city's many museums are also fascinating and you'll have a chance to see them too. Get to know your travelling companions over a drink this evening.

Days 3 & 4 Cuzco

It's important to allow your body time to acclimatise to the high altitude and we've left most of day 3 free for you to do so.

Cuzco, the former Inca capital, features a fascinating combination of Inca and colonial architecture in its mansions, churches and cobbled streets. Discover the city and the surrounding Inca sites, including the mighty ruins of the stone Sacsayhuaman Fortress, on a tour on day 4. Lovely Andean handicrafts and silver jewellery can be found at Cuzco's markets and boutiques. There is also a lively social scene – perhaps spend time with your fellow travellers in one of the inviting cafés or bars.

Day 5 Machu Picchu

The famous ruined city of Machu Picchu was rediscovered by the American, Hiram Bingham, in 1911. Perched above a steep valley, swathed in dense jungle and often referred to as the 'Lost City', this is a truly incredible site. We travel to Machu Picchu by narrow gauge railway and take the bus up to mist-shrouded mountain tops and the captivating ruins. A Local Guide will accompany us and be on hand to answer questions. Wandering around the site and exploring the ruins for yourself is one of the greatest ways to experience Machu Picchu and we allow plenty of time for you to do so.

Day 6 Pisac

The Valley of the Incas is awash with intriguing sites and fascinating tales. The colourful village of Pisac is teeming with enticing markets and shops selling all manner of handcraft items - it's a lovely town with a real local feel and you may choose to spend some time here today.

The impressive Inca ruins of the Ollantaytambo fortress and temple offer an insight into the distinctive Inca building style and also deserve your attention. The site was being built at the time when the Spanish invaded, therefore much of the building was abandoned and remained unfinished.

Days 7 & 8 Puno & Lake Titicaca

The Altiplano plains are where the Andes are at their widest. Passing through traditional and rural communities, the plains offer a route to our next destination, the town of Puno, which is set on the shores of Lake Titicaca. Covering a vast 3,500 square miles, the lake forms the natural border between Bolivia and Peru. At 12,500ft up in the mighty Andes, it's the world's highest navigable lake as well as the legendary birthplace of the Incas.

The homes around the floating Uros Islands are made from a thick type of reed called 'totora' and we have the chance to admire them during our included boat trip. We round off our afternoon with a visit to the pre-Inca burial site at Sillustani.

Day 9 Lima

This evening we gather for a farewell dinner in Puno, where we can enjoy views over Lake Titicaca. Later we'll fly to Lima.

Days 10 & 11 Lima to UK

On the morning of day 10, relax in your hotel or take the opportunity to explore Lima before departing on your return flight to the UK, arriving on day 11.

Please note: This holiday includes walking in areas of rough ground, gradients and steps, often with no hand rails to offer assistance.

During this tour you will experience altitudes of over 12,000ft and altitude sickness can occur. This should not be a problem, although everyone has to take it easy. If you suffer from high blood pressure or respiratory conditions, or have any other concerns, please consult a doctor before you decide to travel on this holiday.

The Terracotta Army, Xian

Tiananmen Square

Day 1 UK to Beijing

We'll fly to Beijing today, arriving on day 2.

Days 2 & 3 Beijing

Beijing is an exceptional city, a huge sprawling metropolis bursting with ancient history and contemporary culture. The Summer Palace, a former royal garden, is set in beautiful grounds and it is here that your experience of China begins with a tour and lunch.

At the heart of Beijing is Tiananmen Square, a site of huge cultural and political significance, bordered by the Qianmen Gate, the Great Hall of the People and the Gate of Heavenly Peace. We'll discover more about it during our tour on day 3. We will also visit the Forbidden City, where you will have time to marvel at the Imperial Palace before we continue to the Temple of Heaven.

Day 4 Great Wall

Yonghe Lamasery is a renowned Lama temple, housing a treasury of Buddhist art, including sculptured images of gods, demons and Buddha as well as Tibetan-style murals. We will visit the temple this morning. At Mutianyu we have the opportunity to visit the Great Wall. One of the best ways to appreciate its might is from above and we'll take a cable car to the top for wonderful views of this remarkable structure and the surrounding landscape. As a fitting finale to this great day, we will enjoy a traditional Chinese dinner this evening.

Days 5 & 6 Xian

We'll fly to Xian and visit the Han Tombs, the resting place of hundreds of terracotta figurines and animals buried with the fourth emperor of the Han Dynasty. Our journey continues as we head towards the beautifully preserved city wall, before transferring to our hotel.

Xian, often referred to as the 'city of eternal peace', was once the flourishing capital of China. It is here that the first Qin emperor was interred in 200BC with at least 6,000 life-size terracotta figures. We will see this remarkable sight on the morning of day 6. In the afternoon we head to the magnificent Small Wild Goose Pagoda, which was established in 684 AD.

After time to explore we continue to our next destination for a completely different experience. Dumplings are a staple food in Chinese cuisine and this afternoon you will have the chance to make some with the guidance of an expert. Keeping to the theme we will gather this evening for a traditional dumpling dinner. Later, join us on our optional excursion to the Tang Dynasty folklore show.

Days 7 & 8 Chengdu

We'll fly to Chengdu today. Jinli Street is one of the city's main streets – here you can see and sample local delicacies and visit traditional tea houses and silk workshops. We'll visit the street and enjoy a refreshing cup of jasmine tea, at a traditional tea house, on day 7.

Leshan is a must-see location thanks to its wonderful verdant scenery and the famous Leshan Giant Buddha that casts his gaze over the Minjiang & Qingjiang rivers. The Buddha here is the tallest in the world and was carved out of the cliff by a monk of the Tang Dynasty around 713 AD. We'll see it on day 8 during a tour that also includes a boat ride offering an alternative view of the statue. We will also see the structure from the top of the mountain and visit the nearby Lingyun temple.

Day 9 Chengdu/Shanghai

Chengdu Panda Breeding Research Centre is a highly regarded facility that helps to protect the rare giant panda and we will visit it this morning.

In the afternoon we fly to Shanghai. Why not join us on an optional tour to discover this magnificent city by night. As the natural light fades the landmarks are illuminated against the night sky.

Day 10 Shanghai

Shanghai is the fastest-developing city in China, with a rich history embedded in the late 19th and early 20th centuries to uncover, and we'll discover more on today's included tour. At its heart is the Huangpu River, with its constant and extraordinary stream of water traffic. The Bund, the city's famous riverside boulevard, is lined with magnificent former colonial buildings, which now stand as monuments to Shanghai's one-time notoriety.

The labyrinth of streets in the Old Town form a stark contrast with modern Nanjing Road - Shanghai is a shopping Mecca. By night, the city is a culinary delight, with all sorts of local and international foods and entertainment that just goes on and on. Our tour takes in the Nanjing Road, the traditional Old Town, with its ancient Wu Xing Ting Teahouse, and the classic Yu Yuan Gardens. We will also visit the beautiful Jade Buddha Temple. For an alternative perspective of the exceptional Chinese culture, we include a ticket to a Shanghai Acrobats show.

Days 11 & 12 Shanghai to UK

A wonderful way to appreciate Shanghai is from the river. This afternoon we include a cruise through Shanghai along the Huangpu River. As we sail towards the East Sea we will enjoy a great view of the Bund and the tremendous skyline. Nanjing Road is awash with sparkling shopping malls and boutiques selling all manner of exciting goods. In the mid-afternoon we will head here and enjoy some time at leisure.

Tonight we will gather as a group for dinner. We will overnight in Shanghai and transfer to the airport on the morning of day 12, arriving back in the UK later the same day.

Please note: We want you to get the most from your holiday with us please be advised this tour requires a good degree of physical fitness and is not suitable for anyone with limited mobility.

Day 3 Cochin

A day packed with great experiences begins with our morning tour of Cochin. Located right in the centre of Jew Town, a bustling port area and centre of Cochin's spice trade, the Jewish Synagogue is the oldest in the commonwealth, dating back to 1568. Next stop is the Mattancherry Palace, renamed the Dutch Palace after the Dutch wrestled Cochin from the hands of the Portuguese. Step inside to admire splendid murals which are said to be amongst the best in India. We round off our tour with a visit to St Francis Church. It is here that Portuguese explorer Vasco da Gama died and was buried. His remains were shipped to Lisbon 14 years later, but his gravestone is interesting to view.

At lunchtime we are invited to a cooking demonstration in the home of Nimmy Paul, a well-known local chef and food journalist. You'll not only learn how to use Kerala's aromatic spices but you'll get to eat the dishes created.

Sydney

Days 1-3 UK to Perth

Meet your travelling companions at Heathrow and fly to Perth, arriving in the early hours of day 3. You will have plenty of time to adjust after your flight with a further three-night stay in Perth. On the evening of day 3 get to know your travelling companions better over a drink and dinner.

Days 4 & 5 Perth

Perth is an appealing city with a compact centre and inviting waterfront area. Along with its neighbouring port of Fremantle, it is one of the most envied locations in the world in which to live. The golden beaches, superb restaurants, lush green parks, the broad expanse of the Swan River and lovely climate give visitors a fine introduction to the relaxed, contented lifestyle of modern-day Australia. Experience Perth's highlights on our included sightseeing tour and see more with a range of optional excursions, which include a cruise on the Swan River in Fremantle.

Days 6 & 7 Alice Springs

We'll fly to Alice Springs, the capital of Australia's red centre, on day 6. This intriguing town is a hub of life in the vast desert of the Northern Territory. Alice is known for many things, the most famous of which, Uluru, we will visit on day 8. In an area so remote, some of the facilities that many of us take for granted, such as hospitals and schools, are not readily available. The flying doctor service and famous School of the Air are vital amenities for so many families living on farms and ranches in the Australian bush, and our tour will take us to the telegraph station that is the flying doctor base as well as the school headquarters (subject to opening times).

Day 8 Uluru

Ayers Rock, officially referred to as Uluru by native Aboriginal people, is situated in the Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. The huge sandstone monolith that rises from the red dirt of the desert floor is a majestic and moving sight and one of the world's most treasured natural wonders. As we travel here, we will make a stop at a camel farm where you will have the chance to take a camel ride.

Uluru is a cherished Aboriginal shrine, and remains the property of the Anangu tribe of the Northern Territory. The rock is two miles long, 1,000ft high and six miles around the base. It changes colour dramatically with the light and is a wondrous sight at any time of day, but even more so at sunrise and sunset when dramatic skies highlight the waves and crags of the rock. We will have the chance to admire Uluru at both of these magical times. This evening we'll enjoy a 'Sounds of Silence' dinner. We'll travel to a secluded spot in the middle of the desert, where a formal dining setting will be laid out. We'll then dine under a star-strewn sky and sip Champagne as the sun sets at Uluru and the Kata Tjuta (the Olgas).

Day 9 Uluru and Cairns

We will visit Uluru as the sun rises this morning. We will also have the very special opportunity to step into some of the caves in the base of the rock and admire the fascinating Aboriginal art that graces the walls of the caves. Off in the distance you will spot the mysterious Kata Tjuta, a range of 36 spectacular rock domes. This afternoon we will fly to Cairns.

Day 10 Cairns

The Great Barrier Reef is variously described as the world's largest living thing and the eighth wonder of the world. It is a stupendous 1,400-mile wonderland of breathtakingly beautiful coral and colourful marine life, studded with unspoilt tropical islands. Today we include a trip by catamaran to the Outer Great Barrier Reef. You will have the chance to snorkel, visit an underwater observatory, take a cruise in a semi-submersible or simply admire your picture-perfect surroundings.

Days 11 & 12 Cairns

Cairns enjoys an idyllic location between the ocean and lush tropics. It is the ideal place to relax and enjoy the great climate and sunshine that Australia is so famous for. Choose from a variety of optional excursions that allow you to make the most of your time here. Maybe you'll choose to take a ride on the Kuranda Railway. Widely regarded as one of the world's most spectacular rail journeys, the track burrows through 15 tunnels and traverses 40 bridges as it clings to the rock face.

Days 13-16 Sydney

Sydney is Australia's biggest and most talked about city, and the home of so many iconic landmarks. The centre is surprisingly compact and can be easily explored on foot. Our included sightseeing tour on day 14 will show you all the highlights, including the world-famous Harbour Bridge and Opera House, which dominate the vast and picturesque harbour. Other memorable sights include Bondi Beach, Hyde Park, Darling Harbour and Mrs Macquarie's Chair.

You'll have plenty of time to enjoy the exciting atmosphere and sheer beauty of Australia's premier city in the company of your travelling companions, with a range of optional excursions allowing you to shape your experience to suit you. Perhaps join us as we drive into the cool Blue Mountains, a tranquil retreat just a few miles from the city. At the wildlife park here, you can come face to face with some of the native wildlife including koalas, possums, wombats and kangaroos. There will also be the chance to take a cruise around Sydney Harbour.

Kata Tjuta (the Olgas)

Day 17 Canberra

Canberra is a beautifully landscaped city. The peaceful tree-lined avenues and uncrowded centre make it hard to believe that this is the Australian capital. Visit the government buildings and get a glimpse of the Prime Minister's Lodge on our tour today. En route, we will stop at the Glenloch sheep station for a sheep shearing demonstration and a barbecue lunch.

Days 18-20 Melbourne

Colonial-style buildings, beautiful parks, wealthy garden suburbs, wide boulevards and trams make Melbourne the most European of Australia's cities. It has a sophisticated, more formal atmosphere yet is also the sports capital of the country. It's the home of Australian Rules Football, the historic Melbourne Cricket Ground and the Melbourne Cup. Our included sightseeing tour on day 18 visits the site of Captain Cook's cottage and you'll catch a glimpse of the old gaol where Ned Kelly was imprisoned and executed. Explore Melbourne at leisure over the next couple of days – dine in the superb restaurants that line the Yarra River, browse in the huge array of shops, relax in the Botanical Gardens with their unrivalled view of the skyline or perhaps take a tram to the seaside resort of St Kilda with its laid-back beaches and quirky shops. An optional afternoon visit to Philip Island, where you can see the remarkable Penguin Parade, will be available. On the final evening we will gather as a group to enjoy a five-course farewell dinner in The Colonial Tramcar Restaurant, a famous fleet of historic trams that now act as sumptuous dining venues.

Days 21 & 22 Melbourne to UK

Enjoy the morning at leisure before your return flight to the UK, arriving on day 22.

Please note: This holiday includes walking in areas of rough ground, gradients and steps, often with no hand rails to offer assistance.

En-route we will journey through the dairy-rich Waikato farming region, home of the Maori kingdom, and visit the world-famous Waitomo Caves. The amazing glow-worm grotto is a fascinating sight and we will explore in the company of a Local Guide.

lake. We will pause here to take in the mesmerising views.

Day 1 UK to Phoenix

Fly to Phoenix today. On arrival you will transfer to the White Stallion Ranch in Tucson. Get to know your travelling companions over dinner this evening and take in the fabulous surroundings of the ranch.

Days 2-6 Ranch activities

Think of Arizona and images of parched desert that stretches for miles, huge clear skies, dramatic mountain vistas, mysterious rock formations and a wild landscape all come to mind.

White Stallion Ranch is a working ranch with a touch of something special. Here, in the middle of the desert, guests are invited to enjoy a real taste of the intriguing outdoors lifestyle. And on this exceptional holiday you will spend six nights on the ranch, where you'll have the chance to experience the exciting day-to-day activities and a few extra special moments too.

Whether you're a beginner or an experienced horse rider, your daily rides will be tailored to suit your abilities. If you want to take a gentle walk that allows you to get to know your equestrian companion and simply take in the surrounding scenery, that's just fine, while the more experienced might prefer a trot or canter. Every level will be accommodated.

An exciting event is the weekly

Exhibition Rodeo, where we'll watch skilled wranglers as they round up cattle and tell us all about the origins of the techniques they use.

Many an old black-and-white cowboy film features a campfire where the gang all gather around and listen as one of them gives a serenade. Well, if weather conditions are favourable, you'll have the chance to experience just that as we get wrapped up for a moonlit bonfire complete with singer. Out in the desert the sky is as clear as you're ever likely to see it and as darkness falls, stars will seemingly multiply before our eyes as we cast our gaze skywards. An evening of star gazing right here in the desert promises to be a truly memorable experience.

We'll also climb aboard a wagon and travel out into the desert for a Western cookout for yet another authentic experience. Along with your fellow travellers, you'll be able to enjoy fabulous desert surroundings, hearty food and a great atmosphere.

Cattle penning takes place twice-weekly here but what is very ordinary to the people who work here is sure to be fascinating to us! Stand back and admire the skill of the wranglers as they herd the cattle and move them across the landscape. You'll even have the opportunity to join in and help out if you'd like.

Days 7 & 8 Phoenix to UK

Transfer from White Stallion Ranch to the airport in Phoenix on day 7. You will arrive back in the UK on day 8.

Please note: There will be plenty of rest stops and time to enjoy the local scenery. Most walks take place on paths and tracks.
